

LaRon Grant is excited to return to the RedHouse Stage for yet another wonderful and fun filled production! Training: Quincy University, Quincy, IL. Recent Performance Credits: Turning 15 On The Road To Freedom (National Tour), Big River, The Toxic Avenger, Dreamgirls, Festival of the Lion King (HongKong Disneyland), Avenue Q, The Little Mermaid, Ragtime, Carousel, The Imaginary (29 HourReading) and many others. LaRon, a Chicago native, is no stranger to the Redhouse stage. He was last seen on the Redhouse stage as Princeton in Avenue Q (SALT Nomination) and he also Assistant Choreographed the SALT nominee production of Dreamgirls and choreographed the summer production Bring It On: The Musical. He is also a teaching artist that has taught theatre, dance and music classes and workshops in Syracuse, Chicago, Ohio and throughout all 5 NYC Burroughs. He also works as a gymnastics coach at the Wendy Hilliard Gymnastics Foundation in Harlem, NY. He would like to give a special thanks to God, his family, friends, his talented cast and the casting and creative team at Redhouse. @laron_grant

Phil. 4:13-01.05.18